

intugo® case study

Global Company

Client Situation:

- Needed to find a way to provide field support to their clients in Mexico
- US Corporate had serious concerns about setting up their Mexico operation on their own
- Their job requirements in Mexico were extremely specific and required scientific and technical expertise and security clearance
- Wants to maintain confidentiality, control of the quality of staff, technical requirements, compliance with Mexican government and be operational in 60 days

Intugo Solution:

- Intugo connects Client to top rated talent and turn-key support
- Client is operational in Mexico in 60 days
- Client receives total turn-key support for all recruiting and hiring, technical requirements and compliance issues related to Mexican law for their operation
- Client continues rapid growth establishing a second facility