

Case Study

Global Company

Client Situation

- The company needed to find a way to provide field support to their clients in Mexico.
- US Corporate had strong concerns about setting up their Mexico operation on their own.
- Their job requirements in Mexico seemed extremely specific and required scientific and technical expertise and security clearance.
- Wants to maintain confidentiality, quality control of personnel, technical requirements, compliance with the Mexican government, and be operational in 60 days.

Intugo Solution

- Intugo connects the client with the best talent and turnkey support.
 - The client is operational in Mexico in 60 days.
 - The client receives full turnkey support for all recruiting and hiring, technical requirements, and compliance issues related to Mexican law for their operation.
 - The customer continues its rapid growth by establishing a second facility.
- 